

Dear Sirs, I am writing in response to your proposal to change the telephone privacy laws. As a resident of Indiana, I have been a subscriber to Indiana telephone privacy law for several months now and have certainly enjoyed the freedom from all of the annoying phone calls. Please do not change the regulations which would allow this to occur again.

Thank you, Dave Doll